

MAE ON ROUTE FULL DAY TOUR

RURAL LIFE, A VIHARA IN THE MIDDLE OF THE WATER AT MAE KAM PONG VILLAGE, WATERFALL, HOT SPRINGS BATH

08.00 am: Pick up from the hotel and drive to the East of Chiang Mai and along highway 1317 about 50 minutes to Mae On District, home to many tourist attractions.

Visit Mae Kampong Village- is a small village of around 500 inhabitants and it is a model of sustainable eco-tourism in Thailand. This pretty, tiny, sleepy village, is located 1,300 meters high on the mountains surrounding Chiang Mai. Taking a deep breath of clean air, sipping a cup of coffee, and enjoying the beautiful scenery of village.

Kanta Prueksa Temple (Wat Mae Kampong)-This is the only temple in the village and was built together with the community settlement. The chapel is in the middle of the pond; the old temple is made from hardwood, and the gable and roofs are carved from the teakwood in a Lanna design.

Mae Kampong Waterfall- is the origin of the creek that runs to the village. It has a total of seven tiers which can be reached via a narrow path, leading into the jungle along the stream.

Lunch at Tharnthong Lodges- a nature resort with a great Thai restaurant that's also blessed with a spectacular view of greenery.

Bathing at San Kamphaeng Hot Springs - Relax at San Kamphaeng Hot Springs. It is a well-known hot springs source. For a long time, the atmosphere was pleasant and beautiful, surrounded by natural mountains and various flowers, and people were excited about the natural wonders that resulted from changes that occurred beneath the earth, creating hot water with a temperature of 100 degrees Celsius.

Try boiling eggs, wait until they are done at your favorite level and try eating them with the soy sauce. You should never miss to experience hot springs mineral bath here. The place offers facilities for foot soaking, traditional mineral bath and a mineral swimming pool.

4.00 pm: Return to hotel.
